

Dear Group Leader

Multi-Media Training Institute and The DC Black Repertory Company Alumni Association invite _____ to raise funds using the play Campaign 72, the story of Shirley Chisholm. The group rates are as follows:

Amount	Description
$45.00	Individual General Admission
$25.00	Group Admission: minimum 10 tickets

As you can see the general admission is $45.00, you raise funds by selling your tickets over the $25.00 price. If you sell your ticket for $35.00 dollars you make $10 on each ticket, if you sell your ticket for face value, $45.00, you make $20.00 on each ticket.

MMTI is requesting a 1st deposit on funds from any tickets sold by January 20th, 2020 and final deposits on February 15th, 2020. Any unsold tickets will be turned back in to MMTI.

If you have any questions, call 202 270-2850.

Thank You,
Lyn Dyson
Producer, Campaign 72

Souvenir Journal

The Multi-Media Training Institute and The DC Black Repertory Company Alumni Association will present Campaign 72, the story of Shirley Chisholm as a dramatic presentation during parts of Black History month and the very beginning of National Women's month, February 22nd, 23rd and March 1st at the Eaton Hotel, 1201 K St. NW.

We are expecting over 2500 patrons live and a thousand more as we stream live to pay per view Facebook. Students from Duke Ellington School of the Performing Arts, Marion Barry Youth Leadership Institute from the District's Department of Employment Services, Ward 7 & 8 youth from the ARC, and Building Bridges will be behind the scenes as videographers, stage managers, and sound and lighting technicians.

We are presenting this branding opportunity to Corporate Names to not only support these young people, but to present an important legend in Black and Women's History to the District, Maryland and Virginia communities.

We are asking you to also support our youth and senior groups in attending these presentations with your corporate ads in our souvenir program. The branding opportunities are as follows:

$5,000 for Full Page Ad:

200 Youth and Seniors attendance
5 youth technical trainees
Ad placement in FB live stream

$2,500 for Half Page Ad:

100 Youth and Seniors attendance
3 Youth technical trainees
